

B2B Data Universe - BusinessBase

Challenge

Do you need to promote your product or services to other businesses?

Do you need to reach out to specific job titles / key decision makers to make offers or tell them news about your products or services?

Do you need to target specific companies by employee size and turnover?

DBS Data BusinessBase gives you the flexibility to build your business prospecting data the way you want it.

Introduction

Our B2B data universe has more than 3.7 million actively tele-researched company site records with more than 8.2 million decision maker contacts by job function. This data is based on the latest Companies House file and has full contact details and financial data appended. Our BusinessBase marketing data is flexible to suit any sales or marketing requirement that you have from comprehensive data to simple address, telephone or email lists. We can provide over 100 B2B data selection options so getting the exact data for your requirements is fast and very easy. In addition, because we also have a huge consumer data file we are able to provide up to 300 data points about the individuals (B2P) enabling you to market to the individual people – not just to the business.

Above all our B2B database is of the highest quality and levels of compliance. We offer solid guarantees so that you know you can trust it to deliver the results you want. ►

Case Study

Challenge

A high-end retailer with multiple branches needed to reach out to corporate decision makers within the South East of England to promote their Christmas Hamper gift options, offering a discount for early purchases.

Process

DBS Data worked very closely with the client's direct marketing agency to define the selection criteria. We carried out a detailed profile of their existing business customers to understand more about them, these were then matched against our BusinessBase using the top semi decile segments that looked most like the current customers. DBS Data were able to provide 20,000 highly targeted postal records for this campaign.

The results

- The client was impressed to see a direct response rate of 1.76%, delivering them increased brand awareness and a healthy return on investment from this direct mail campaign
- This has now become a permanent fixture in this luxury client marketing budget
